

Trinity Vicariate Pastoral Council Meeting
Tuesday, May 20, 2008
St. Scholastica

Meeting opened with welcome by Liz Demyan @ 7:00 pm

Liz Demyan, Chairperson – Accepted meeting notes from the April Vicariate Meeting

Vicariate Website – Glen Porter will act as webmaster. The programming time will be donated; Vicariate news and business will be highlighted, and every parish will have the opportunity to report their activities and link their site to the Vicariate web page. The cost of the website is $140/year. The Vicariate had consensus that the Vicariate will cover this from its budget. The web address is www.trinityvicariate.org

Selection Process for New Vicar and Officers – The Vicariate has chosen to fill the officer positions:

Chairperson – Jerry Szczepanski

Treasurer – Roseanne Jodway

Vice Chairperson – Horace Thompson

Secretary – Donna Kutylowski

Presentation of the Trinity Symbols – Donna handed out a sheet that had several symbols on it. She also noted the one that received the most votes. The only complaint on this symbol was that the color was not right. Accordingly, she handed out a second document with several color options for this symbol. Each member was asked to vote on the color options.

Mission Statement Committee – This team is comprised of Donna Kutylowski and Jerry Szczepanski. They are looking for one more volunteer to help with this project. Fr. Parker has asked for brevity and focus on this project.

Fr. Parker Communicated – Fr. Parker shared with the team a few items:

1. Paid Parish Employees Major Findings
2. Gender of Parish Ministers
3. Race of Parish Ministers
4. Priest Statistics/Demographics

Fr. Parker also suggested that we as a Vicariate attack the problem of Catholic Schools, and the financial problems associated with them. There is a need to be creative to fund these important treasures.

There is a MOSES meeting on June 5th, and Fr. Parker passed out a sign up sheet for this meeting.

St. Leo and St. Cecilia are looking to officially cluster. The one thing that will need to be determined is if they will be in the Trinity or Renaissance Vicariate.

Trinity Vicariate Budget – Postponed until next meeting

Schools' Alliance Update - Postponed until next meeting

Next Meeting – Tuesday June 17th, St. Bartholomew/St. Rita
